MYSTERY CLOUDS AVIATOR AFTER HOP INTO WILDS

World Awaits Word from Italian in Brazil.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, March 18.—(AP)—Commander Francesco De Pinedo, the Italian aviator, has disappeared into the great swamp region of western Brazil. A day and a night have gone by since his giant hydro-airplane left Sao Luis de Caceres, state of Mato Grosso, to be towed down the Paraguay river to find a stretch of water from which it could take off for the flight northward across the Brazilian jungle in continuation of his four-continent flight.

Aviation experts here are not alarmed over the failure to receive word from De Pinedo, pointing out that the silence probably is because he is in a region where there is no possibility of getting a message to the outside world either by telegraph or radio.

When De Pinedo was preparing to leave Sao Luis de Caceres he was fully aware of the dangers. It was known that if forced to land, the commander and his companions would have to travel by foot and canoe back to civilization. It might require weeks to return.

Hoped to Make Single Jump.
They thought it possible, however, that they might make the flight from Sao Luis de Caceres to Manaus in one hop, covering in a short time a distance that would take days or weeks to traverse by canoe and afoot. The route planned was almost parallel to that trekked by Roosevelt in his discovery of the "River of Doubt," now known as the Roosevelt river.

Brazilian jungle explorers are optimistic over the safety of the aviators. A prolonged stay in these virgin regions, they say, would not be as dangerous as would appear, as food would be available, and only two tribes are known to be antagonistic to white men.

U. S. FLYERS IN BAHIA
BY LEONARD STINGER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
BAHIA, Brazil, March 18.—The United States Army's good will planes arrived here at 5:15 p. m. today from Victoria. They will leave tomorrow for Pernambuco. The American aviators were given an enthusiastic reception. Tonight they are the guests of the state government.

Today proved a strenuous one for the army flyers. They left Rio de Janeiro 750 miles from here, at 5:30 a. m. and dropped to the water at Victoria at 9:55 a. m. There they were welcomed by the city's officials. Victoria is 250 miles north of Rio. From Rio the airmen flew in a dreary drizzle which continued until they alighted at Victoria. The planes flew at an average height of 500 feet and at a speed of 90 miles an hour.

Guests of Officials.
At noon, after having breakfast with Victoria government officials on the shore at Praia Piratininga, when the meteorological station sent a report that the weather to Bahia would be good, they hopped off again.

Maj. Herbert A. Dargue, the commander, said he was well satisfied with the work done by the planes St. Louis, San Francisco, and San Antonio, particularly since the motors had just been overhauled. He said that there is still 8,000 miles to be covered. He hopes to be in Washington on May 1 for the opening of the Pan-American aviation congress.

Completes Atlantic Flight.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
PORT NATAL, Brazil, March 18.—The Portuguese flyers, headed by Maj. Sarmiento Borges, arrived here at 12:50 p. m. from the island of Fernando Noronha, 125 miles off the Brazilian coast. This completes Maj. Borges' flight across the Atlantic from the Bissagos islands, off Portuguese West Africa.

The whereabouts of the Italian aviator, De Pinedo, who was reported to have left Sao Luis de Caceres, in the Brazilian jungle region, is a mystery in the Brazilian capital. Despite word of his flight since Thursday still is lacking.

The United States army flyers yesterday flew from Rio de Janeiro to Bahia, Brazil, stopping at Victoria.

AUTOS KILL FIVE CHILDREN IN 3 DAYS; TOLL IS 172

Five children have been killed by automobiles in the last three days, according to records at the coroner's office. The fifth victim was Robert Rademaker, 7 years old, who died yesterday in the Roosevelt Community hospital of injuries received a few hours earlier when he was struck by an automobile driven by Ralph Glass, 1119 South Sacramento boulevard. The accident occurred on 119th street near Wallace avenue. Glass was held by police. The death raised the county motor toll for the year to 172.

Seize Robbery Suspect at Bank with $20,000 Bonds

Isadore Davies, 61 East Goethe street, was arrested yesterday when he tried to dispose of bonds of the city of Cordova, with a face value of $20,000, at the Greenebaum Sons Bank and Trust company. The detective bureau was notified by the New York authorities that bonds of this city, worth $50,000, were stolen on March 4. Davies opened an account in the Greenebaum bank last week. The police were notified by its officials when he tried to convert the bonds into money.

FUGITIVE'S PHONE CALL TO WIFE SPRINGS A TRAP

Court Clerk Also Held in Sutton Case.

Harry L. Sutton, alias Burke, alleged head of an automobile theft ring, who was released from the county jail Thursday on forged bonds of $97,500, was rearrested last evening when police headed by Lieut. John Ford raided a flat at 2334 Indiana avenue. With him were a friend, John Gill, and two women, Clara Gornia and Beatrice Twombly. Mrs. Sutton, who told the police during the afternoon that she had paid $500 for the bonds, was not present. Her husband called her on the telephone to say good bye before leaving for Kansas City and the police traced the call to the Indiana avenue flat.

Says He Believed in Bonds.
Sutton asserted that he also believed the bonds were good. The police say he admitted, however, that he intended to jump them. In her statement to Assistant State's Attorneys Harold Levy and Arthur Carls, Mrs. Sutton named James Rudecki, of 1529 South Ashland avenue, and William Sterling, 3059 North Sawyer avenue, as the men who obtained the fraudulent bonds. They are being sought.

Court Clerk Also Held.
These men, she asserted, told her the bonds had been signed in regular form by Judge Max Luster. Harry F. Heberlein, a court clerk, who admitted that he had signed discharge slips at 3 o'clock in the morning for a fee of $40, was held.

The husband and wife met in the state's attorney's office and Mrs. Sutton bitterly complained about his being found with another woman after she had done her best to get him out of jail. Sutton attempted to avoid her and refused to talk to her.

At the time of the raid, both Sutton and Gill had pistols, but were overpowered before they could use them. In the flat was a suitcase containing tools used in changing automobile identifying numbers and saws to cut steel bars. The police also found a harmonica.

According to the police, Gill was ahead of the Mexicans, who escaped from the Joliet jail in his use of music to drown out the noise of saws against steel bars. He is said to have played loudly while they broke out of jail in Darien, Wis., and to have been detected as he tried it again in Mattoon, Ill., where he and Sutton were arrested several weeks ago.

CONFESSES MAIL TRAIN ROBBERY TO HOAX POLICE
New York, March 18.—(Special).—The story told by Frederick L. Buhl Jr. at Brooklyn police headquarters on Thursday night a few hours after he was arrested at the request of postal inspectors proved to be fiction. The young man today admitted that his account of a $300,000 mail robbery at Alton, Ill., on Aug. 29, 1923, was told to hoax the police.

Buhl drew on a vivid imagination, because when he was arrested he remembered the New Jersey authorities had several indictments against him for forgery, and he believed that if he confessed to an Illinois robbery he would be taken to that state. Then, he said, he soon would be able to obtain his freedom and be safe from the New Jersey police.

CHARGE LAXITY AT HOSPITAL IN 6 BABY DEATHS

Coroner's Jury Completes Acid Tragedy Quiz.

Laxity and inefficiency in the management of the Columbus hospital was charged by a coroner's jury which yesterday finished its investigation into the deaths of six babies, given a boric acid solution instead of drinking water through a nurse's mistake. No criminal responsibility for the deaths was found.

The infants died Feb. 28 and within the 36 hours following, when Nurse Margaret Cuff fed them the acid solution from a kettle which she thought contained boiled drinking water. Miss Cuff and Miss Aileen Callahan, another nurse, who put the kettle of boric acid solution on a window sill without labeling it, were held responsible for the deaths in the coroner's verdict. They were reprimanded for their negligence.

No System in Hospital.
The evidence disclosed that there was great laxity and inefficiency in the management of the hospital, the verdict stated. "There was no one definitely in charge of the obstetrical department. There was no one on the medical staff to whom the nursing was directly answerable. The conduct of the medical staff in the emergency was one of confusion and the staff was dilatory in reporting the situation to the coroner."

The jury considered the situation so grave that it recommended that committees from the Chicago Medical Society, the Chicago Society of Internal Medicine and the Chicago Pathological Society cooperate with Coroner Oscar Wolff in formulating legislation to correct apparent evils in hospital management.

Ask Large Poison Labels.
All stock solutions in hospitals should be prepared by registered pharmacists and such stock bottles should be labeled with large labels, the jury recommended. Boiled water or sterile water should be dispensed in flat bottom flasks sealed with cotton covered stoppers to signify that the container contains water, while all stock solutions should be in bottles labeled with a red poison label with the skull and cross bones, it was stated.

PRESIDENT SEES TAX SLASH BY NEXT CONGRESS

Large Surplus Justifies Income Cut, He Thinks.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., March 18.—(Special.)—Prospects of continued treasury surpluses have convinced President Coolidge that a reduction in taxes will be feasible in the next session of congress.

His opinion is, however, that it will be possible to determine the extent of reduction until next fall. November, he thinks, the situation will have shaped up in such a way as to make a decision possible. The large surplus and means committee is expected to commence hearings on income law revision about Nov. 1. It is expected that recommendations of the treasury, backed up by the means committee, will be submitted to congress at that time.

Tax Plan Was Justified.
President Coolidge's view, as outlined at the White House today, is that it would be unwise to draw too definite conclusions from the increased income tax payments of the present year. The large receipts do prove, in the president's opinion, that his plan to cut in taxes due in March and June of the present year on 1926 earnings could have easily been made. As a result of the refusal of congress to make the flat cut a large surplus is in prospect for the current fiscal year.

Treasury officials have informed the president that a 10 per cent recession in business throughout the country would wipe out all the surplus in prospect. Therefore, Mr. Coolidge advises caution until it is ascertained how business conditions hold up. Inasmuch as congress did not see fit to make an emergency tax reduction, the president is satisfied to have the treasury use the surplus in debt retirement.

Approves House Hearing.
It is indicated that President Coolidge has given his approval to the plan of the house way and means committee to have its experts start preliminary work at once and to begin hearings a month or more before the opening of the session of congress in December. Such approval in long absence was evidence that the president is satisfied that tax reduction can be safely made next winter.

At present the president has no opinion as to the method to be followed in revising tax rates. It is assumed that he will be largely guided by the opinions of treasury officials as to what rates should be cut.

10 Per Cent Greater Than Last Year.
The treasury is still without complete information as the March 15 income tax receipts. Today's treasury statement as of March 16 showed receipts from income taxes on that day of only $14,811,840 and a total for the month of March up to that date of only $14,811,840, or approximately $400,000 less than the amount understood to have reached the various internal revenue collectors by March 15.

The amount in the hands of the treasury by March 16, however, was almost 50 per cent greater than on the same day a year ago. The March total up to the 16th was $45,890,760. On this basis there is no question but that the total for the month will be close to $600,000,000 as against less than $500,000,000 in March, 1926.

Senator Smoot (Rep., Utah), chairman of the senate finance committee, had today he believed the surplus this year would reach $600,000,000. If this case, he thought a $500,000,000 cut might be possible with special aid being afforded corporations and the paying medium surtaxes and some of the excise taxes reduced or repealed.

BOY TAKEN FOR PISTOL THEFTS.
Gordon Carpinelli, 10, of 633 South Main street, was arrested yesterday when he was found in possession of a pistol stolen from his employers, Hubbard, Spencer, Hart & Co. He admitted taking two more pistols and four watches from the concern.

U. S. TREASURY'S DOORS SNAP SHUT ON FALSE ALARM

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP.)—Alarm bells suddenly changed out a warning in the treasury today and every door in the building, including those of the vaults where millions are stored, swung into their locks with precision.

Hastily, armed guards made an investigation, and since it was quelling time, several thousand workers were forced to delay their departure.

Then it was disclosed that a defective electrical connection on one of the vaults caused the alarm; the gates were unlocked and employees gathered hats and coats and departed. Officials breathed easier.

Woman Named in Suit Now Asks for $50,000

Mrs. Lilah Keithly, 425 Surf street, named as co-respondent in a separation suit filed some time ago by Mrs. Paulett A. Jennings, 1249 Ashbury street, Hubbard Woods, yesterday returned with a $50,000 suit against Mrs. Jennings in the superior court. Attorneys representing Mrs. Keithly would give no information concerning the suit, but it was asserted that the case is related to the triangular controversy which has involved David J. Jennings, wealthy manufacturer, his wife, and Mrs. Keithly.

Arrest Lord Terrington in $2,000,000 Bankruptcy

BOULOGNE, France, March 18.—(AP.)—Lord Terrington, wanted in London in connection with bankruptcy proceedings involving about $2,000,000, was arrested tonight. He was about to embark for Folkestone. He was taken to a hospital on the plea of ill health, and was watched by policemen. Mrs. Devere Humphrey, who was named by Lord Terrington in her divorce proceedings last year, was with Lord Terrington when he was arrested.

Citing Lincoln's Speech Checks Windy Orators

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
OTTAWA, Ont., March 18.—When members of the Canadian house of commons tonight were inclined to balk at the enactment of a new rule to limit their speeches to forty minutes, Lincoln's Gettysburg address was quoted to them as a shining example of effective brevity. The dissenters then grudgingly accepted the rule. However, Arthur Nell, British Columbia independent, pleaded: "But none of us is a Lincoln."

FOOD PRICES DROP 2% IN CHICAGO; 3 1/2% IN NATION

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(Special.)—Average retail prices of food in Chicago decreased 2 per cent between Jan. 15 and Feb. 15, according to the monthly food index of the department of labor. The decrease in the country also was 2 per cent.

Chicago food prices on Feb. 15 were 2 per cent less than on Feb. 15, 1926. The decrease throughout the country for the year was nearly 3 1/2 per cent. Food prices in Chicago Feb. 15 were 68 per cent higher than in 1915. In the country, as a whole, prices this year are 61 per cent above 1915.

ROBBER BEATS AGED WOMAN IN HOME; GETS $40

Mrs. Bertha Badrian, 64 years old, housekeeper in the home of Dr. Gordon Tandy, 1638 West Madison street, was beaten unconscious by a robber who invaded her rooms shortly before midnight, and is in a serious condition in the county hospital. When an alarm was sounded and police reached the place she was barely able to gasp out an incoherent story of what had happened. She said the man demanded her money and when she told him she had none he beat and kicked her. She was unable to give a description of the robber, who took $40 and fled.

German Royalists Back Ban on Kaiser's Return

BERLIN, March 18.—(AP.)—Former Emperor William's chances of returning to Germany slumped today. It was revealed in reichstag circles that even the Nationalist cabinet members will support the demands of the left parties for an indefinite extension of that portion of the law "for the protection of the republic" which prevents the ex-kaiser's return without cabinet approval. The law expires July 1.

CHICAGO MAY GIVE CREW FOR NEW CRUISER

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
WITH THE UNITED STATES FLEET OFF GONAIVES, Haiti, March 18.—The American naval staff will continue to recommend more light cruisers as result of the Caribbean maneuvers. "Chicago" already has been advanced as the name of one cruiser, in honor of the old Chicago, according to officers close to the commander in chief of the fleet, and the city of Chicago may be asked to supply the entire ship's company.

Haiti's Chief Reviews Tars.

UNITED STATES FLEET OFF GONAIVES, Haiti, March 18.—(AP.)—President Borno of Haiti today reviewed the United States fleet of more than 100 warships. The forty thousand sailors manned the rails under a tropical sun as the Haitian president, accompanied by Assistant Secretary of the Navy Robinson, passed before the anchored fleet on board the cruiser Trenton.

A salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the biggest vessels. Fifteen admirals took part in the review. The greatest force of American sailors ever assembled was disappointed when Admiral Hughes, commanding the fleet, prohibited shore leave at Gonaives. Admiral Hughes, lecturing the division commanders on the lessons of last week's maneuvers, told them that the strength of the modern navy is in its power to dodge, shoot and steam.

Thrill Bandits Sentenced, Faced with New Charges

Two Elgin youths, Henry Atkinson and George Webb, who three weeks ago were captured in their wrecked auto near Valparaiso, Ind., after they had held up employees of the Palace theater in Gary and fled with $1,000, were sentenced to from two to four years in the penitentiary yesterday in Lake county criminal court, on grand larceny charges. A charge of robbery with a gun was immediately filed against them, however, the state accusing them of a filling station hold-up, punishment for which would be more severe. The youths have admitted a series of holdups made "just for the fun of it."

DODGE SAYS HE'S MAN ENOUGH TO GIVE WIFE DECREE

Spikes Scandal Rumors;
Not After Brody.

Detroit, Mich., March 18.—(Special.)—Although Horace E. Dodge has filed an appearance in the Circuit court in his wife's suit for divorce, he will not contest the action, he indicated today. The statement of Mr. Dodge, follows: "If Mrs. Dodge desires a divorce, he believes he is man enough to let her have it and that he would always adequately provide for her."

Mrs. Dodge at the time of filing suit said there was "nothing sensational" in her bill of complaint. "It is just a question of incompatibility," she explained. "There are two sides to every quarrel or misunderstanding. Probably it was a case of too much leisure for both of us."

Spikes Rumors of Scandal.
Mr. Dodge explained an accident in Paris last May in which an automobile in which Mrs. Dodge and some friends were riding, struck a child. The car, owned by Mr. Dodge, was being driven at the time by Alton A. Brody of New York City, who, to avert complications, gave Mr. Dodge's name when he was questioned.

Mr. Dodge's statement said: "I was first informed of the accident last year on the 15th of May, by a letter which I received from Mrs. Dodge. About three days previous to the accident Mrs. Dodge had discharged her chauffeur and, having no one in readiness to drive the car, Mr. Brody, whom I have known for a long time, offered to do so, in as much as Mrs. Dodge and her guests had made plans to go to Versailles for tea."

Denies He's After Brody.
"When the accident occurred, Mr. Brody thought that driving a car in a foreign country without the proper identification being in his name, was illegal and used—or was told to use—my name."

"Any intimation that has been made that I am 'out to get Alton Brody' is absolutely untrue and false. I have known him for a number of years and know that, intentionally, he would do nothing to hurt me."

Camp Grant Periled by Prairie Blaze

Rockford, Ill., March 18.—(AP.)—At 2:30 this morning additional calls were sent to the Rockford fire department saying that a shift in wind had placed the lumber yards and buildings of the Camp Grant Wrecking company in danger. Another company was sent to the scene. The prairie fire, which has raged since early Friday evening, was sweeping toward the great lumber piles. The lumber is mostly from cantonment buildings.

City Inspector Falls to Death in Calumet River

Thomas McNeft, 55, of 5637 South Lincoln, a masonry inspector for the city, fell yesterday from a bridge under construction at the Calumet river and 100th street and was drowned before aid could reach him. Witnesses told the police that he missed his footing as he walked over the base framework of the structure. The body was recovered by the South Chicago police.

Judge Hugo M. Friend of the Circuit court yesterday reported to police that his automobile had been stolen. The car, a small sedan, had been parked in front of his home at 5840 South Parkway.

ELOPING DIXIE GIRL IS HELD ON PARENTS' ORDER

"Call for Miss Esther Calhoun," bellowed Sergt. Cassin and Melican of the detective bureau as a Santa Fe train rolled into the Polk street station last night.

"I'm Miss Calhoun," said a pretty girl, skipping over to the detectives. "You're from Callao, Mo., and you're expecting to meet Hod Walls, who used to be your childhood playmate, aren't you?" they asked.

"How did you know?" the girl replied. She smiled. "Where is Hod? I haven't seen him in years. He and I were going to be married," she confided.

"Sorry, miss," said Cassin and Melican, "but the chief of police at Callao wired here and asked us to greet you. He says you ran away from home to marry Hod and your parents object."

At the detective bureau the girl, who is 17, cried for several minutes. She told the police that Hod would be at the South Bend station waiting and that he would be terribly disappointed. But the sergeants, though sympathetic, were firm, and Miss Calhoun was taken to the women's quarters at South Clark street station to await word from her parents.

FORD'S EDITOR TAKES STAND TO FIGHT LIBEL SUIT

Huge Grain Conspiracy
Charged by Reed.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Chicago Tribune Press Service.
Detroit, Mich., March 18.—[Special.]—Henry Ford's personal part in directing the attacks against Jews in his magazine, the Dearborn Independent, was the objective of the opening drive in court today by counsel for Aaron Sapiro, Chicago lawyer and organizer of farmers' cooperative movements in Maine to California, who is seeking $1,000,000 damages from the motor car king.

W. J. Cameron, editor of the Ford publication, was the first witness called for the plaintiff. He appeared perfectly willing to tell just how far the articles in the Independent were inspired by Mr. Ford, or where Mr. Ford, perhaps, disagreed with the articles on his own paper, but objections by Mr. Ford's counsel, Stewart Hanley, stopped this testimony until Wednesday.

Senator James A. Reed, chief counsel for Mr. Ford, had concluded his opening address to the jury of six men and six women, setting forth the alleged sins of the Sapiro cooperatives in detail and calling Mr. Sapiro an "exploiter of the American farmer." The Missouri senator's picture of this Jewish organizer, aided and deepened by sarcasm and innuendo, was strangely like that of the ancient Aaron, in the troubles of the children of Israel in Egypt.

The prophet of Bible story stretched forth his rod and ruined the land of the farmers of Egypt by a variety of plagues. The modern Aaron, according to Senator Reed, was a far more sinister figure, a Jewish exploiter of millions and millions of dollars.

Reed Assails Sapiro.

Seeking to keep out of the case any idea of a Jewish conspiracy, Senator Reed made this indictment of Sapiro: "That thousands of farmers have suffered terrible losses in Sapiro's organization."

"That all of Sapiro's claims that these associations could control prices turned out to be false, to be failures, and that the whole plan and scheme of his organization was unworkable and in many respects unwarranted."

"That Mr. Sapiro's representations with reference to these organizations were false, and that Mr. Sapiro in almost all, if not all, cases got himself employed by promising and agreeing that he would accept whatever fees these farmers' associations saw fit to fix, and that almost without exception he collected exorbitant fees.

"That he had in his mind a dream of fees, through the organization of all the farmers of the United States, and through becoming attorney for such organizations, and that these fees, if his dream or expectation had been realized, would have amounted to a million dollars."

Collected Almost a Million.
"We will show that Sapiro actually collected from these organizations fees amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars. I believe that the evidence will show that these fees ran to approximately a million dollars."

"We will prove that Sapiro was directly or indirectly responsible for the failures and losses in about 40 cooperatives."

"Finally, we will show that the Dearborn Independent articles were printed in good faith for the purpose of protecting the farmers and growers of the United States against these schemes of the plaintiff, Sapiro, and we will ask you to find that Aaron Sapiro was an exploiter of the American farmer."

Sought to Control Wheat.

Senator Reed spoke during a large part of both sessions today, taking up, in rotation, the history of cooperative organization in potatoes, tobacco, peanuts, celery, cotton, hops, and prunes, and tracing the fees and activities of Sapiro. Coming to the wheat situation, he said that it would be shown that the Sapiro organization sought to reach out for wheat crop control, not only in this country, but also in the Argentine, Australia, and Russia.

This movement, he told the jury, was started in 1919, when Sapiro went into Idaho and formed cooperative marketing associations of wheat. This was extended to the Northwest Wheat Growers' association, and Sapiro, he said, went to the War Finance corporation and got some government money and charged $3,500 for getting this money.

The wheat growers who went into this, Senator Reed said, received from 15 to 30 cents less a bushel than the outside growers. The Idaho and Washington organizations became defunct.

Plans for Monopoly.
"About this time," Senator Reed continued, "a man named George Jewett, managing head of the Northwest Wheat Growers' association, became involved in a controversy with Sapiro, and formed a super-organization of some eight wheat associations. It was known as the American Wheat Growers' association. We will show you that Sapiro undertook to organize a rival association and to destroy this old association."

"We will show you that there was held in Chicago a meeting, at which Sapiro, Robert H. Bingham, Eugene Meyer, Frank O. Lowden, Walter Petzet, Carl Williams, Sam Guard, and Herman Beene appeared. They had a secret meeting in Chicago about Oct. 8, 1922."

"We will show you that the purpose of the meeting was to consummate the plans of Mr. Sapiro in the formation of the Cooperative Wheat associations in all the wheat states of the country, and then the federation of these associations into a national exchange."

"This, however, was not the program of the American Farm Bureau federation. Later these plans became public and the American Farm Bureau federation refused to join in them."

Sapiro's Lawyer Objects.
Mr. Gallagher objected: "How in the world can the willingness of the American Farm Bureau federation to join in the plans of Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, and of Herman Stein, an authority upon cooperative marketing, and of Aaron Sapiro, a lawyer authority upon that, have any bearing upon the guilt or innocence of these defendants in the publication of these libels?" he asked.

"Now, if Frank O. Lowden is a part of this conspiracy, is one of the gang of international Jews, and that is very plain, all well and good, I will withdraw my objection. But if that is not very plain, then this has no place here at all," continued Mr. Gallagher.

Reed and Gallagher Tilt.
SENATOR REED—O, well, Eugene Meyer was a Jew and Sapiro was a Jew and Sam Guard was a Jew.

MR. GALLAGHER—Sam Guard was not a Jew, never was a Jew.

SENATOR REED—Then I am in error. But Herbert Stein—

MR. GALLAGHER—Herbert Stein never was a Jew and is not today.

THE COURT—We are getting into an argumentative situation here, which does not mean any progress. I think the statement is improper unless connected up with other facts which, so far, do not appear.

Reed Defends Position.
SENATOR REED—I want to show in furtherance of the truth of these articles that there was a meeting held of these parties named in these articles, one of them was Lowden, one of them was Meyer, one of them was Bingham, and others, and they had for their purpose, along with Sapiro, the creation of an organization, first, to control the wheat of the United States, and then to control the wheat internationally.

THE COURT—Without ruling upon the admissibility of the testimony, I will permit the statement to stand.

Where They Got the Money.
SENATOR REED—Now we will show that it was arranged at Chicago for a meeting to be held in Denver, Colo., on Oct. 30, 1923.

We will show you that Bernard Buch joined this committee, these people who had gotten together, or advanced them $5,000. Julius Rosenwald, another man, who was named, loaned them $15,000. Mr. Bingham loaned them $20,000. I think Mr. Sapiro himself put in $5,000. And that all of these sums were to be used by this committee in furtherance of the plan and scheme I have been outlining. And we find afterwards that Mr. Sapiro and Eugene Meyer and others of these gentlemen did attend this Denver conference.

Cameron on Stand.

Mr. Cameron, on the witness stand, said that before going to the independent he had been employed on the Detroit News. Mr. Ford, he said, in response to questions from Mr. Gallagher, dropped in at the magazine office frequently to chat on matters of policy "in the most general way."

Asked to state where the policy of the paper ever differed from that of Mr. Ford's own views, he said:

"Well, Mr. Ford is strong against war, whereas the paper stands for adequate preparedness. Mr. Ford looks with lenient eyes upon the Russian people's experiment, whereas the paper is anti-bolshevik."

Ford's Soviet Views.

"You mean that Mr. Ford is pro-soviet?" asked Mr. Gallagher.

"No, he is not pro-soviet. He looks with lenient eyes upon the experiment."

When it came to the question as to whether Mr. Ford was in full, or partial, or no accord with the policy of the paper in attacking the "international banking ring," there were objections that halted the trial until Monday.

Mr. Gallagher subpoenaed all of the issues of the independent from first publication, and circulation records.

CUTHBERTSON TO ACT ON CRIME CODE CHANGES

Will Introduce Officials' Suggestions Here.

Laws to curb crime, some of them revolutionary, suggested yesterday by Chicago and Cook county officials at a meeting in the Union League club of the state senate committee on revising the criminal code will be introduced to the assembly, Senator Andrew Cuthbertson, chairman, announced.

"And I want the aid of these officials in the passage of the laws," the senator added, "when the bills are introduced in the legislature."

Wants Two-thirds Rule.

Judge William V. Brothers of the Criminal court, recommended that an agreement of two-thirds of a jury be sufficient to render a verdict, except in capital cases, rather than the present unanimous requirement. He urged that the court be made sole judge of the law in a case and that the judge's recommendation should be given more weight by the board of parole.

Capt. Michael Huzar of the county highway police, called some alienists "con men," and suggested that expert witnesses on the question of insanity be selected by the court.

Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins suggested lessening the interval between arrest and trial during which, he said, witnesses are often bribed or intimidated. He would abolish the grand jury and eliminate technicalities which retard justice.

Judge Philip L. Sullivan of the Circuit court agreed that the grand jury should be abolished. Further, he said it is ridiculous for juries to be judges of the law, and said that he would like to see women serve in criminal cases. He asserted that judges should be elected directly to the Criminal bench for terms that would enable them to correct faults.

Urges Dock Clearing.

John H. Passmore, clerk of the Criminal court, suggested that all judges of the Circuit and Superior courts devote the next six months to clearing the criminal docket of 1,520 pending cases and then that procedure be expedited by removing technicalities.

Judge Marcus Kavanagh of the Superior court suggested the cat-o-nine-tails to combat the moron menace and urged strict legislation against promiscuous sale of firearms.

A public mass meeting to discuss crime has been called by the Illinois Manufacturers' association for March 30 in Orchestra hall. The speakers will be Mayor Daniel W. Hoan of Milwaukee, Edward E. Gore, president of the Chicago crime commission, and Judge Kavanagh, Maj. Gen. Milton J. Foreman, D. C., will preside.

KILLS MAN WHO TRIES TO REGAIN WIFE HE SOLD

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LYONS, France, March 18.—Moses Benay, rich 60 year old farmer living in the hamlet of Valesieux, today shot and killed Cesar Barsaghi, aged 42, whose wife, Therese Barsaghi, aged 38, he purchased for 20,000 francs ($3000) last May.

M. Barsaghi went to M. Benay's farmhouse, saying that unless he got more money he would take away his wife. When the aged farmer said he had no more money M. Barsaghi reached for a knife, so M. Benay drew a revolver and fired twice.

M. Benay was accused by Therese during his visit to Lyons last May. The girl explained to the farmer that her husband forced her to walk the streets. M. Benay offered M. Barsaghi 20,000 francs to give up Therese.

WOMAN, 85, DIES OF FALL.
Mrs. Martha Shipman, 85 years old, died yesterday at Oak Haven old people's home of a rupture of an artery when she fell three weeks ago in the home of her son-in-law, George Collins of 6838 34th Street, Berwyn.

FOUND

MRS. HELEN BERROYER.

Mrs. Helen Berroyer, who disappeared with her 2 year old son, Billy, from the Grand Central station in New York station in New York two years ago, has returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Mayma Hawker Myers, 5709 Magnolia avenue. She said she had been a victim of amnesia and had wandered all over America in search of her home. Now, she added, things that happened to her before she disappeared are clear in her memory, while her wanderings are obscure. She believes she has been in Europe. Billy, now 4 years old, remembers that they were once in Florida.

U. S. CUTTER RUNS RUM CRAFT INTO CANADA HARBOR

Chases Schooner for Three Days.

BY R. J. RANKIN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
HALIFAX, N. S., March 18.—There was great excitement in the fishing port of Lunenburg today when the schooner Fred M. Himmelman was pursued directly into the harbor and up to wharf by a United States coast guard cutter.

The schooner, with liquor aboard, had been chased by the cutter since Tuesday evening. No shots were fired, although the cutter, the Bonham, is armed. The cutter carries 16 men.

Following but a short distance behind the schooner, the American boat came into the harbor, forcing the schooner to its wharf. The cutter then moved up the harbor a little further and anchored. The captain came ashore and went to the customs house. No statement could be secured regarding his report to the Canadian authorities. Soon after the captain returned to his craft, the cutter took up anchor and left.

The Himmelman, under Capt. Paul Meisner, has been hovering off the American coast for several weeks. It was chased to the Nova Scotia coast last week, but the pursuers lost it in the fog. It returned to the American coast, but on Tuesday, was again chased, finally sailing into Lunenburg harbor ahead of the Bonham at 8 a. m. today.

Three Bandits Get $186 in 3 South Side Holdups

Robbers obtained $186 in three robberies in the Englewood district last night. L. M. Carpenter, attendant at a gasoline station at 6001 South Racine avenue, gave up $40. At the drug store of Simon Letow, 5701 Westworth avenue, the bandits obtained $76. George Garwell, attendant at a filling station at 5800 Normal boulevard, surrendered $70.

CAPTURE FOUR AS MORONS; NEGRO CALLED AX MAN

Boy Menaced; Woman Is Beaten; Many Scared.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Joseph Scott, rape, sentenced to 1 year in Pontiac reformatory; Arthur Nelson, assault to murder, sentenced to 1 year in the reformatory; William Martin, crime against children, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary by Judge Emanuel Eiler.

Crill H. Perry, robbery, sentenced to 3 to 30 years in the penitentiary by Judge William V. Brothers.

Fred Perdue, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in Pontiac reformatory; John D. Robinson, forgery, sentenced to 1 to 14 years in Pontiac reformatory; John W. Chambers, obtaining money by false pretenses, sentenced to 1 year in the reformatory by Judge Philip L. Sullivan.

Irving Park police last night trapped a man as he was leading a 12 year old boy to a dark spot on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad embankment, a cab driver was arrested after he had torn most of the clothing from a young woman and beaten her; a 14 year old girl identified a young man as one who attempted to attack her; a six foot negro was arrested in Chicago Heights and identified by nine women as having attacked or attempted to attack them.

George V. Dwyer, 35 years old, was arrested by the Irving Park police when found luring 12 year old Roy Hillman of 4848 Winnemac avenue. Dwyer was seized by detectives who were told Dwyer had promised the boy money to meet him by the railroad tracks. Dwyer said he was leading the boy across the tracks to buy him candy. Dwyer refused to give his address. He was held.

Two weeks ago, Dwyer and another called on George Hillman, father of Roy, seeking to sell him a garage. Dwyer at that time tried to lure the boy to the tracks with promises of money.

Girl Identifies Man as Attacker.

A 14 year old school girl at the Lawndale station last night identified George Puncobar, 28, of 3207 South Karlov avenue, as the man who on March 14 attempted to attack her. The girl told the police he seized her as she was crossing a prairie at 18th Street and Kostner avenue, and that he pushed a handkerchief drenched with chloroform over her face. Her screams frightened him away.

Ruby Vist of 4923 Sheridan road, was taken to the Lake View hospital after John Thor, cab driver of 3500 Ellis avenue, had beaten her and torn her clothing from her body. Thor had gone to her room to deliver a trunk.

Women Accuse Negro.

Cothran Lee, 21 year old colored man, 195 pounds and more than six feet tall, was the moron identified by the nine Chicago Heights women. Several said he carried an ax and attempted to beat them over the head with it when he sprang at them from the darkness.

WAR BRIDE ASKS A DIVORCE FROM HEIR TO MILLION

Terence Roy Johnston, heir to the $1,000,000 fortune of his father, Roy Johnston of Brenton, England, was accused of cruelty in a divorce suit filed yesterday in the Superior court by his war bride wife, Mrs. Lucienne Auger Johnston of 2327 Commonwealth avenue.

Johnston, according to Attorney John B. Frucht, representing the wife, is a nephew of Gen. Harry Allen, who commanded the American army of occupation in Germany. The young man met his wife in Tours, France, in January, 1919, and they were married almost immediately. She charged that when they came to America he commenced a course of cruelty. Then she found a letter to him from another woman and when she reproached him he struck her, the bill charges.

Johnston receives an allowance of $150 a month from his father and earns $300 a month in the employ of the Daves Maynard company, 111 West Monroe street, according to the bill.

KILLS SELF BY DRINKING POISON.

Frank Hollenbeck, 42 years old, committed suicide yesterday by drinking poison at his home, 6930 South May street. He is believed to have been despondent over ill health.

RICH OR VICIOUS BUY DEVER ADS, THOMPSON SAYS

Calls Mayor's G. O. P.
Aids 'Traducers, Liars.'

William Hale Thompson hurled the words "traducers and liars" last night at the nonpartisan people's Dever for mayor committee, which is headed by such citizens as Max Mason, president of the University of Chicago; Dr. Frank Billings, the Rev. John Timothy Stone, Alexander H. Revell, and Walter Dill Scott, president of Northwestern university.

In a statement given out after his night meeting Thompson said if the group of "lily-white gentlemen" on the people's Dever committee is not paying for its own literature it is then spending "dirty money" collected by Mayor Dever and George Brennan from the underworld.

The Thompson blast came on the heels of a message Bill threw at Dever at a noonday meeting at the Olympic theater. That session lasted into mid-afternoon with three overflow meetings going on full blast outside the theater itself.

Warns Dever of Fast Ride.
"Let me tell Mayor Dever," shouted Bill, "tie on your hat, you're going to get a ride."

A few hours later the backing bronchos began to buck.

"The gold coast committee of absentee landlords," said Mr. Thompson, "who are spending $10,000 a day for full page ads in daily newspapers urging the people of Chicago to elect a Democrat mayor, in order to distract attention from my statement that the $5 per barrel that has been paid for the last four years for every barrel of needed beer, sold in violation of the law in Chicago reaches pretty close to Mayor Dever's own family has made the statement that Samuel Insull has contributed large sums of money at various times to my campaigns."

"This is a deliberate lie and the persons making the statement know it to be such."

Makes Slush Fund Charge.
"I would like to inform these professional upifiers that if they are not paying for the ads that they sponsor in the newspapers but are spending money received from Boss Brennan and Dever, that Brennan and Dever are receiving money collected from the gamblers and prostitutes of Chicago, and these lily-white gentlemen are helping spend that dirty money."

"The city is now flooded with slot machines, gambling houses, and houses of prostitution and the Bloom is the official collector of the underworld for the Dever campaign that these traducers and liars are promoting by their false statements."

Takes Up Dinner Fall Fies.

In his platform utterances at the Olympic Thompson brought out the old dinner fall as in his old campaigns and thumped it.

"I want everybody who is out of jobs to vote for me," he said. "I want all who may soon be out of jobs to vote for me. Let Brennan deliver the rest to Dever. Then Dever'll go to Europe."

Thompson called the traction settlement ordinances offered by the Dever regime "a diabolical plot."

During the day Thompson struck off a bulletin against George Brennan. "Brennan," he said, "has employed strike-breaking agencies to hire Negroes to canvass white residential districts with Thompson pledge cards for the purpose of creating the impression that the canvassers are friends of mine."

Alderman Oscar F. Nelson, Democratic alderman of the 46th ward, Thompson's home ward, shared the day's platform activities with Thompson and denounced Dever.

West Boosts Thompson.

Roy O. West, secretary of the Republican national committee, called a Thompson meeting for his ward, the Fifth, for next Thursday night and sent an invitation to the candidate to be present.

"At his night meetings Thompson denounced Mayor Dever, repeating his charge that some one 'in Dever's family' has been getting $5 a barrel on beer run in Chicago."

"I'm getting closer this person every hour," the former mayor declared at De Paul auditorium, 2235 Sheffield avenue. "Dever says he will punish me for my inquiries. How will he punish me? With Cosmick methods such as he employed in the Second and Third wards? He'll be lucky if he doesn't find himself in jail."

At a meeting at North Side Turner hall, where the gymnasium was crowded Thompson referred to Dever as "Crook Dever" and to George E. Brennan as "that Turk Brennan."

Takes Wrong Car; Police Let Him Argue Two Hours

Frank Reynolds, of 736 11th street, Wilmette, a student at Northwestern university, was late for the senior ball last night. He was detained at the Evanston police station because he was driving the wrong automobile—one that had been reported stolen by A. K. Scheidenhelm, 404 Forest avenue. After a couple of hours he convinced the police that he had mistaken the Scheidenhelm car for another that a fraternity brother had lent him.

DEVER PAINTS CITY'S GOLDEN AGE TO VOTERS

sars. Ald. John Toman reported that in the Twenty-third ward, the large Bohemian population is stronger than ever for Dever, because he chased out hoodlum beer gangs that peddled needle beer at $5 a barrel, and terrorized old fashion saloon keepers.

Tells of Fight with Gangs.

"In my ward, the 23d, and in the 22d," Toman said, "there is a great liberal minded population, largely Bohemian. They are stronger for Dever today than ever, so our canvass books show. They remember how things were run under Thompson."

"In the 22d ward were four breweries in a half mile radius, all owned by small stockholders, mostly saloon keepers. They closed July, 1918, and the owners never-bay-operated them. Hoodlums, however, from outside came in and leased the breweries to turn out 'temperance beverages.' The beer grange made a terrible condition."

"Instead of the old corner saloon where people used to play a game of cards and have a social time, dumps were opened up, operated by hoodlums from outside. The gangsters sold their beer at a barrel. They'd dump as many barrels as they saw fit in a place and make the owner pay up, and they drove out the respectable places. They'd put in needle beer that would drive the drinker cuckoo."

Says Dever Routed Gangsters.
"Mayor Dever chased these hoodlums out. People brew a good grade of beer in their homes, as elsewhere things have adjusted themselves somewhat and this wet and dry question is in far better shape than it was under Thompson. My people are stronger than ever for Dever. They know he is a real liberal and modificationist."

Mayor Dever in his night meetings denounced the campaign tactics of his opponent and called attention to cards and handbills dealing with certain lapses in a crude and extra offensive way.

"We are making an absolutely clean campaign," the mayor said. "We have no room for personalities or appeals to prejudice. Any voter who runs across any literature or card which appeals to racial or religious prejudice may rest assured it emanates from our opponents, regardless of how it is labeled or what it purports to be."

In supplementing its inquiry as to whether the Thompson campaign fund was receiving utility contributions, Thompson having said publicly that the Dever managers were getting no traction support, the people's independent movement put out the following:

"The records show that between 1916 and 1923 Thompson spent more than $1,000,000 on experts and attorneys engaged in attacking the surface lines, while Mr. Insull's elevated lines practically were unmolested by the city hall."

Cost of Fare Fight.
"In 1920, some $500,000 was paid by the public for Thompson's fare movement, directed at the street cars. But the elevated lines raised their fares to ten cents and kept them there."

"In 1915 Thompson solemnly promised to battle for the people against the public utilities. He didn't tell the people that Samuel Insull had contributed $100,000 to the Thompson campaign."

"Thompson didn't tell the people that he owned $117,000 of stock in Insull's Commonwealth Edison company. He didn't tell the people that Daniel Schuyler Jr., Thompson's personal lawyer, was also Insull's personal lawyer."

"In April, 1915, Thompson was elected mayor. In June, 1915, Insull put the law arm of Schuyler, Etteleson & Weinfeld on the gas company's payroll at $14,000 a year. In November, 1915, Thompson appointed Samuel Etteleson, Schuyler's law partner, as corporation counsel."

ROB DEMOCRATIC WARD WORKERS BEFORE MEETING

Two robbers, one armed with a shotgun and the other with a pistol, walked into the 7th Ward Democratic club at 2708 East 75th street last evening, lined up fifteen or twenty early arrivals for a meeting, and after terrorizing them escaped with a sum believed to have been $750.50.

No formal report was made by any of the victims. According to the information gleaned from a confidential source by the Grand Crossing police, the early arrivals were playing cards and discussing the races when the bandits entered.

From the card players a total of $1.50 was taken. The heaviest loser, the confidential report stated, was Jack Smith, a bookmaker. He is said to have surrendered $752. The police believe the robbers are the same pair that robbed a gambling house on 92nd street recently.

JUDGE ORDERS ALBERT-HAFFA BALLOT RUNOFF

One of the bitterest aldermanic fights in Chicago's history was predicted yesterday for the 43d ward on April 5 after County Judge Jarecki formally ruled that there must be a runoff between Ald. A. F. Albert and Titus A. Haffa.

The judge held that the recount of ballots cast in the first election Feb. 22 failed to give Haffa a majority by 116 votes, although in the first canvass he was proclaimed winner.

Both candidates declared last night that they would throw every ounce of energy into the campaign and both seemed confident of victory.

On learning of Judge Jarecki's decision, Mayor Dever announced that he would instruct Chief Collins to double the police strength in the ward on election day to thwart fraud and violence.

CANADA PREMIER CALLS FOR TRADE PACTS WITH U. S.

Blames Maritime Ills on Reciprocity Defeat.

BY GEORGE SMITH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
OTTAWA, Ont., March 18.—Canada's willingness to institute closer trade relations with the United States was expressed on the floor of the Canadian House of Commons today when Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced important federal concessions to the three maritime provinces—Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Some sections of these provinces were threatening secession because of continued economic depression, caused principally by Canadian-American tariff barriers.

One of the recommendations contained in the report of the royal commission which investigated maritime ill effects was that the Canadian government should seek with the United States a mutual trade treaty for forestry products and fish. Mr. King said "reciprocal trade treaties in natural products" are part of the Liberal trade policy.

Pleads for Reciprocity.

"We believe," he said, "that to the defeat of the 1911 proposed reciprocal trade agreement between the United States and Canada, more than to all other factors combined, may be traced the cause of existing economic depression in the maritime provinces. Our policy remains one of seeking to advance as opportunity affords mutual trade agreements in natural products."

A declaration of Canada's readiness "to make an arrangement with the United States whenever they are ready to meet us on fair terms," he said, "would be found in the Canadian tariff laws, placed there by William Fielding, promoter of the defeated reciprocity pact. The clause says any Canadian minister is authorized "to enter negotiations with the United States government with a view to the making of a commercial agreement between the two countries on terms that may be deemed mutually beneficial."

"This," Mr. King added, "is a general indication of our willingness to make a commercial treaty with our neighbors."

Need Action by Congress.

He pointed out that any trade agreement undertaken would first require action by the United States Congress as well as by the Canadian parliament, but that the President of the United States was now privileged to make certain reductions of duties without waiting for Congress.

The premier asserted that all but two of the major recommendations for establishing prosperity in the maritime provinces would be carried out. These two concern the proposed bounty for the maritime steel industry and extension of the power of the Canadian railway commission to prescribe advantageous maritime freight rates.

The government, however, announced a general 20 per cent freight rate reduction on maritime freight. Payment of immediate lump sum subsidies of $575,000 to Nova Scotia, $600,000 to New Brunswick, and $125,000 to Prince Edward Island. Settlement of permanent annual subsidy figures is to be left to an interprovincial conference this summer.

NEVADA MAKES NEW BID TO REGAIN PLACE AS DIVORCE MECCA

Carson City, Nev., March 18.—(AP)—Nevada, and Reno in particular, will make a new bid for the divorce business of the wealthy under a measure enacted into law today reducing the residence requirement from six to three months.

Once the recognized divorce capital of the nation, Reno's place has been threatened of late by Paris and Mexico, in several provinces of which divorces can be arranged in a few weeks.

The amendment to the divorce law slipped through both houses of the legislature in its closing hours, and was signed by Gov. Fred B. Balzar.

Later members of the legislature expressed amazement when told of the provisions of the bill. Most of them thought they had merely added insanity as the eighth cause of divorce in the state.

EX-GANGSTERS TO ATTEND CHURCH SERVICE TODAY

Gangsters who have given up their guns for a Bible, who have found prayer more potent than peddling booze or rifling the mails for a living, and vastly more comfortable, will take part this afternoon in religious services marking the fourth annual meeting of the Fishermen's club at the First Congregational church in Cicero.

Some of the most picturesque characters in Chicago are included in the membership of this organization, which comprises men from all walks of life and is devoted to evangelistic work. It was originated four years ago by the Rev. William McCarrell, pastor of the church.

Among those expected to attend are the Rev. Bob Ingersoll, who was converted during a term in prison; the Rev. Walter G. Taylor, now superintendent of the Pacific Garden mission, 650 South State street; Ed Murphy, also converted while in jail, now active in prison evangelist missions; Louis Skoda, who tells of the time when he was a gangster; Bert Baker and Ralph Keeter of Aurora.

Americans Climb Vesuvius to Watch New Eruption

NAPLES, Italy, March 18.—(AP)—Mount Vesuvius resumed eruption last night causing some alarm to residents of the district but putting on a good show for tourists. Many of the latter stayed up all last night to watch the spectacle and today a party of English and Americans climbed the slope and went into the crater.

There is no danger at present, Prof. Malladra, director of the Royal observatory on Mount Vesuvius, says.

FRANCE NOT EVEN TO LISTEN IN AT NAVY CUT PARLEY

Will Refuse to Appoint
Observer, Belief.

PARIS, March 18.—(AP)—All chance of France's even sending an observer to the forthcoming three power naval disarmament conference at Geneva is believed here to have been eliminated by the American memorandum published at Geneva yesterday opposing international supervision of armaments, once an armament limitation agreement has been reached.

The French government has committed itself so firmly to the program of the league of nations commission for general disarmament that political observers do not believe it can dissociate itself.

The American memorandum indicates the league's program is considered impossible in Washington, with the result that little likelihood of reconciling the conflicting views is seen here.

Italy May Send Observer

ROME, March 18.—(AP)—The Radio Nazionale News agency says it is authoritatively informed that Italy will probably consent to send an observer to the three power naval disarmament conference in Geneva. Official circles continue to maintain silence.

Favors Evacuation of Rhineland

BRUSSELS, March 18.—Foreign Minister Vandervelde today told the Belgian senate he favored the evacuation of the Rhineland because Germany had signed the Locarno pacts, joined the league of nations, executed its disarmament obligations and accepted the Dawes plan of reparations.

"When the negotiations for the evacuation begin we must seek guarantees and compensations, and then end the occupation, which entails such unhappy results," he said. "We must choose policies of force or agreement, one looking toward war and the other toward peace. We have tried a pitiless policy since the war—who dares say it is not a failure?"

Regarding Germany's guilt for the war, I will not say she alone was responsible. No one pretends that Belgium is not entitled to reparations, but by forcing the issue France and Belgium obtained less."

U. S. COURTS, FACING SHORTAGE OF FUNDS, CURTAIL ACTIVITIES

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—Curtailling of activities in United States District courts have been made necessary by the failure of the deficiency, it has developed.

It was reported from Philadelphia that the United States District court there would have to suspend operations at the end of March, two months earlier than the usual summer adjournment. Lack of funds, it was said, would make operation of the courts there impossible.

Department of justice officials are of the opinion that it will not be necessary to close down other courts and that by economy the money now available will suffice until funds are available July 1. It is expected, however, that there will be a general shutdown in District court activities.

Two circular letters have been sent to United States marshals and federal judges, urging them to economize as much as possible and only bring up such cases as are necessary until July 1.

STREET ORPHANS PERIL TO RUSSIA, LADY PAGET SAYS

Russia is confronted with a strange and terrible problem in the hundreds of "wild children" roaming the streets of cities there as part of the aftermath of the world war, Lady Muriel Paget told members of the Chicago Woman's club yesterday at a luncheon given for her by the distinguished guest committee of the art and literature department.

Roving uncontrolled and practically uncontrollable about the communities into which they were swept by movements of the armies, these orphaned boys and girls subsist in some mysterious way, a peril to themselves and those around them. Scores have become drug addicts, and almost all are prodigious in robbery and other crimes, she declared.

The country as a whole has made rapid strides forward since wartime in many fields, according to Lady Paget, who told of concerts she attended in Moscow at which the music was "so heavenly I would walk all the way back there for a chance to hear it again."

Sees Woman, Age 48, End Life in Calumet River

Helen Paskarino, 48 years old, of 210 East 115th street, waded into the Calumet river at 111th street yesterday. She was drowned before rescuers could reach her. Daniel Ackerman, owner of a houseboat near by, saw her and attempted to warn her. Patrolman Clinton Boyer recovered the body.

COURT REFUSES TO MUZZLE SHAW ON FILM CLAIMS

"G. B. S." Stirs Row Over
"Chocolate Soldier."

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, March 18.—George Bernard Shaw, famous dramatist, appeared in the chancery courts this afternoon to defend his right to declare publicly that the comic opera, "The Chocolate Soldier," is a deliberate plagiarism of Mr. Shaw's play, "Arms and the Man."

Jesse Arnold Levison, the Los Angeles attorney and expert on movie law, sought an injunction in the courts here to prevent Mr. Shaw from telling the film trade that any picture based on "The Chocolate Soldier" would infringe on his copyright and also to prevent him from interfering in the production of the film version of the opera.

After hearing the legal arguments the court decided that an injunction could not be granted in the form demanded, and ordered an amendment of the pleadings.

His counsel declared Attorney Levison came to England and secured an understanding from Mr. Shaw's secretary that the dramatist would not claim royalties on the film rights of "The Chocolate Soldier," quoting a letter from her saying Mr. Shaw regarded the works as two distinct plays. He then proceeded to Vienna, where he bought the rights from the composer, Isidore Strauss, and the librettist. Later Mr. Levison received a cable from Mr. Shaw stating that any film called "The Chocolate Soldier" would infringe on the copyright and those responsible would be prosecuted. Mr. Shaw resisted the jurisdiction of the American courts, Attorney Levison claimed, forcing the injunction suit to be brought to England. Denying that he had pirated Mr. Shaw's play, Attorney Levison said he had never heard of "Arms and the Man" when he went to interview Mr. Shaw.

FRANCO-ITALIAN RIVALRY TO BOSS BALKANS SIZZLES

Rome Calls Jugo-Slavs' Arming Sinister.

By JOHN CLAYTON.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)
ROME, March 18.—The Franco-Italian struggle for Balkan supremacy is rapidly approaching a dangerous climax, if one may judge by the polemics and articles in the newspapers of both nations.

The battle centers around the little states, particularly Jugo-Slavia and Roumania. Italy's recent trumpeting of her ratification of the treaty of peace granting Bessarabia to Roumania has convinced the Italian nation that Roumania is won to the Italian cause.

The Giornale D'Italia tonight publishes a long dispatch from Belgrade, sent by courier to Trieste to escape the censor and thence telephoned—revealing the feverish preparations for war in Jugo-Slavia. The dispatch is published under the heading: "Warlike Preparations of Jugo-Slavia."

"Against Whom?" A long editorial which certainly has the blessing of the foreign office, if not directly inspired by it, accompanies the dispatch.

Seen Blow at Balkan Peace.

"Without doubt Jugo-Slavia's policy has a tendency which is not that of peace in the Balkans or friendship for Italy," the editorial says.

According to the Giornale D'Italia's Belgrade correspondent, the warlike preparations include the hurried construction of military roads along the Jugo-Slavia-Albanian and the Jugo-Slavia-Italian frontiers, intensified work in the arsenal of Kraguevatz and government munitions plants, and an increase in the purchases of materials of war abroad, particularly armored cars and airplanes.

These preparations must be closely followed by Italy, the paper says, first, because they are being made along the confines of Italy; second, because an anti-Italian tendency is being revealed which is almost ostentatious; third, because they are acts which savor of a menacing character; fourth, because they are in relation with vast international agreements which it is important to establish and follow in their development; fifth, because they represent an open counterpart to the supposed threat in the Italian policy, of which so much is being said beyond the Alps.

COAL OPERATORS TO STAND PAT IN SCALE DEMANDS

Illinois coal operators will stand pat in their fight with miners, especially in view of the fact that bituminous coal supplies in various sections of the United States will range between 50,000,000 and 100,000,000 tons on April 1, the date set for the walkout of coal miners in the central competitive field of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, according to an estimate made at yesterday's conference of the Coal Operators' Association of Illinois. This supply will last for two or three months, they said, and will enable them to stand firm on their demands.

Those at the meeting endorsed the position taken by the coal operators at Miami, Fla., recently, who refused to concede to the representatives of the coal diggers who refused to take a wage reduction suggested by the mine owners. Operators yesterday said in Illinois the walkout will affect approximately 200 mines and about 72,000 miners.

Says State Suffers.

"Like all other unionized fields, Illinois has suffered severely and progressively under the Jacksonville wage contract which expires on March 31, and under which the miners receive a wage of $7.50 a day," asserted Rice Miller, the president of the Coal Operators' Association of Illinois.

"And this suffering has continued even with the artificial stimulus given by the anthracite miners and British miners' strikes.

"Illinois operators have tried in every way to get relief and sought earnestly but without success to obtain needed adjustments to meet changed conditions in the industry. In former years the central competitive field produced a major percentage of the country's bituminous coal and enjoyed natural markets for its products.

Terms Unacceptable.

"Today, under the inflexible and out of date Jacksonville agreement, the unionized states have almost ceased to compete and have been forced to yield their position and markets to rapidly growing production from adjacent and even distant nonunion fields. The latter is especially true of West Virginia and Kentucky. Proposals made by John L. Lewis, the miners' chief, for a two year renewal of the Jacksonville pact are unacceptable."

Mr. Miller said the operators' wage scale committee will meet on next Wednesday at the Great Northern hotel to discuss the threatened strike. He announced the possibility of averting a walkout is very remote.

ANOTHER SLOW CLUB STARTING; FIFTY MEMBERS

Another Slow club, the Universal, was formed last night when a group of insurgent members of the Central Slow club broke away and organized to fight jazz, drinking, and "fast living" by the younger set.

The meeting, held at the home of Miss Mary Jeager, 3319 Beidon avenue, was attended by about 50.

Robert Chernoff, 3327 West Division street, was elected president. Other officers are Theodore Burge, vice president; H. O. Brown, second vice president; R. W. Troike, 1753 Lawndale avenue, treasurer; Virginia Jones, recording secretary, and Mary Jeager, financial secretary.

The next meeting will be held in the Capitol building next Friday night at 8 o'clock.

FOREMAN ADMITS HE AIDED ESCAPE AT LEAVENWORTH

New Orleans, La., March 18.—(AP)—Charles M. Thompson, former assistant superintendent of the shoe factory at Leavenworth penitentiary, told a newspaper reporter in the presence of deputy sheriffs here late today that he had aided John P. Carroll to escape, after the latter had offered him $43,000 to do so.

Thompson said that he had not received any of the money offered.

The former shoe factory official was held here for a time incommunicado after federal agents had chased him through several states.

"Carroll offered me $43,000 if I would get him out of prison," Thompson said. "I was getting a salary of $3,000 a year. I think Carroll is honest. I think he intended giving me the money at the first opportunity. The offer of the $43,000 went to my head. I had a good job, and I am sorry I was not strong enough to withstand temptation."

ARREST 200 IN GAMING RAIDS ON WEST SIDE

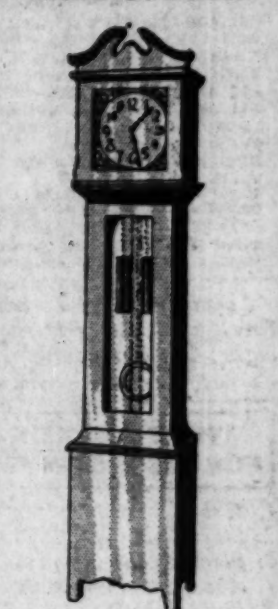

Detectives from the state's attorney's office and the county highway police yesterday raided two large alleged gambling establishments on the west side, one of them in the prosecutor's own ward, and made approximately 200 arrests.

More than 100 prisoners were taken at 4003 Ogden avenue by Detectives McCarthy, Tapscott, Brennan, Hughes, and Freeman of the county department. They said they had to batter down solid doors before they gained entry to the place where a roulette wheel, a handbook, and several other forms of gambling were in progress, according to the police.

Bill Johnson was reported the owner of this place, but Julius (Lovin Putty) Annister, alleged head of the gambling syndicate, is said to be the real owner. The rear rooms of a barber shop at 3114 West Madison street were raided by a squad under Detective William Haas from the prosecutor's office. He charges that he found enough prisoners to fill five patrol wagons gambling in this place. Edward Williams is charged with being the owner.

HYDROX PREFERRED

Why do discriminating buyers, people who value good things to eat, prefer Hydrox?

Is the preference of these people based on the finer taste of Hydrox — its greater richness — its higher food value? Or is it the combination of all these things PLUS certain definite values not necessarily evident to taste, but unmistakably contributing to the excellence and healthfulness of the product — those certain hidden values for which only the integrity of the manufacturer is responsible?

Why does Hydrox put more pure, rich cream into its Ice Cream than the laws of this state or the laws of any other state require?

Why does Hydrox use only pure fruits and flavors instead of extracts when there is no law in any state to demand it?

Why does Hydrox freeze its Ice Cream in a sterile atmosphere?

Why does Hydrox sell more Ice Cream than the combined output of all the manufacturers in many large cities — cities as large, for example, as Kansas City, Milwaukee and Minneapolis?

WHY? Because when the people know that Hydrox prefers to do far more than any law demands, Hydrox becomes preferred.

OPEN ASSEMBLY QUIZ ON CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE

Committee Begins Study of Grain Dispute.

Members of the state legislature's committee appointed to investigate conditions and practices of the Board of Trade began yesterday a digest of the testimony given in the dispute between the Armour Grain company and the Grain Marketing company.

This record of the proceedings before Edward E. Brown, who as arbitrator decided that some of the Armour Grain company officials had been guilty of wrongdoing, is in twenty-four volumes containing 15,000 pages. In addition there are 500 exhibits which fill a large trunk.

The five members of the committee, Representatives Thomas Curran, chairman, Frank Ryan, John M. Lee, Charles W. Baker, and Frank McCarthy, said they would study this evidence preparatory to hearing the first witnesses next Friday.

Headquarters Established.

The committee established headquarters in room 715, Otis building, 19 South La Salle street, the office of Attorney Benjamin F. Goldstein, who was appointed counsel. He said the committee was desirous of having persons with helpful information call there.

Several persons already have given Attorney Goldstein information which he said will be checked and may prove of value to the investigators. The intention of the committee was said to be to obtain as much data on Board of Trade procedure as will enable state officials to make recommendations for new laws.

It is expected that as a result of this hearing some memberships will be canceled. The state representatives were said yesterday to be desirous of knowing why George E. Marcy was permitted to sell his membership after Arbitrator Brown had charged that Marcy, as general manager of the Armour Grain company, had secured knowledge of fraudulent transactions of his company.

REPORT MEXICAN WAR MINISTER HURT AT FRONT

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 18.—Travelers from Guadalajara say that Minister of War Amaro was seriously wounded two days ago in Ocotlán, his headquarters, in the campaign against the rebels, and will be brought here tonight or tomorrow. The stories vary. One report says that Gen. Amaro was wounded in a fight against insurgents. Another reports that part of the Thirty-ninth regiment, revolted and the general was caught in the revolt. A third asserts that the wounding was accidental.

LAUD CLEVELAND ON 90TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTHDAY

New York, March 18.—(AP)—Grover Cleveland, the man and the President, was recalled to a audience of friends and admirers by former associates in public and private life at a dinner to-night observing the ninetieth anniversary of his birth.

Former United States Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, secretary of interior in the Cleveland cabinet, was one of the principal speakers.

"The grandeur of his character is recognized more and more as time passes," the former senator said. "All concede today that Mr. Cleveland was one of the ablest, wisest, and greatest Presidents the United States ever had."

Dr. Paul Van Dyke of Princeton, whose friendship with Cleveland was formed in the last ten years of the former President's life, said Cleveland "was, in the hackneyed modern phrase, a hundred per cent American, but without having to try very hard and above all without everlastingly talking about it."

"Being a thoroughgoing American," Dr. Van Dyke said, "did not mean to him the assumption that in every international discussion the United States was necessarily always entirely in the right and all other nations in the world necessarily and always absolutely in the wrong."

"For instance, he accepted without timorous suspicion the ideal of arbitration leading toward a state of peace from the evil human habit of war, which he detested as strongly as any man I ever knew."

SEIZURE OF U.S. CITIZENS' LANDS IN MEXICO STOPS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(Special.)—Disclosure that the Mexican government has, at least temporarily, stopped confiscating American property in that republic, was made by President Coolidge today.

It was stated that no reports of American property seized without compensation have been received at the state department within the last few weeks. Whether this indicates that the Mexican government has decided to meet the American objections to the confiscatory features of the Mexican oil and agrarian laws could not be determined here.

At the White House it was simply stated that the fact that no claims have been made recently apparently indicates an indisposition on the part of the Mexican government to confiscate American property, for the present at least.

The White House pronouncement served to revive rumors from Mexico City that President Calles has at last agreed to the demands of this government that American property should not be taken without compensation being paid. At the state department it was reiterated that if such a move is contemplated the Mexican government thus far has failed to notify of their decision.

Woman Falls to Death from Third Floor Flat

Mrs. Helen Callaghan, 33 years old, of 1367 Estes avenue, was fatally injured yesterday when she fell from the third floor apartment occupied by Mrs. James O'Neill, 5712 South Michigan avenue, whom she had been visiting. She died while being taken to Washington Park hospital. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

ORDER UNDESIRABLE DRY AGENTS WEEDED OUT UNDER NEW ACT

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—A weeding out of undesirable personnel in the prohibition unit will take place the first of April, when the treasury reorganization act, creating a separate prohibition bureau, goes into effect. This was revealed today when Assistant Secretary Andrews, prohibition enforcement chief, announced that all administrators had been asked to submit a list of the men they desired to continue in the service.

Under the new law the status of all agents is changed on April 1. All who remain in the service must be transferred from the internal revenue bureau to the prohibition bureau. Mr. Andrews said today that he had advised his administrators to weed out all those they do not think could pass the civil service tests or who are undesirable.

Under the reorganization plan, all prohibition officials and personnel with the exception of the new prohibition commissioner must pass civil service examinations. The administrators and higher officials, however, will be let off with oral tests.

GREEN REPLACES FRANK'S ORANGE BOW IN PRISON

When you mix green with orange, sometimes you get blue.

At least that is what Frank Miller, convict at Joliet penitentiary, was thinking yesterday as he was bleaching out from a St. Patrick's day adventure in chronology.

It was at 17 minutes past 7, on St. Patrick's day morning, that Miller snatched out of his cell in the new Stateville prison, wearing a cheery orange riband on his prison jumpers. It made him feel gay.

It was at 18 minutes past 7, that same St. Patrick's day morning, that a group of his comrades (their names sounded like O'Grady, McDonough, O'Brien and Fitzpatrick) saw Miller and his yellow bow. It seemed to make them see red.

They marched the orange-man over to the prison paint shop. They took off his orange riband. They took off everything. Then they put on bright, fresh, sticky, green paint.

Yesterday Miller walked thoughtfully over to a newly painted chair. He wet his finger, then rubbed it across the green surface.

"What're you doing?" they asked. "Aw, nothin'," he answered reflectively, "just wondered how much water it took to get paint off."

LAKE LEVEL TALK CAMOUFLAGE FOR FILTHY SEWAGE

Attack Chicago to Turn Away Public Eye.

Detroit, Mich., March 18.—By making the question of diminished lake levels a controversial issue, lake states are creating a barrage to hide their delinquency in the treatment of sewage which, filled with deadly bacteria, pours into the great lakes, according to Horace P. Ramey, engineer for the Sanitary District of Chicago. He spoke before the Detroit Engineering society here tonight.

"The great lakes furnish the municipal water supplies to practically all the cities and villages located on their shores and their connecting channels," Mr. Ramey declared. "With only one exception the lakes receive the sewage of these same communities, and most of it is untreated. As a result the waters are becoming so polluted in many places as to threaten the life of the fishing industries and the health of many of the lake cities."

Chicago Set Example.

"The sewage of approximately 4,000,000 people in the United States," he continued, "drains directly into the Great Lakes system, and the sewage of about 3,500,000 more would drain there if Chicago had not, thirty-eight years ago, adopted the safest policy of keeping sewage entirely out of the source of water supply."

Mr. Ramey's figures showed how far Chicago has outstripped all other cities in construction of sewage treatment plants and in plans for future plants. He said that Chicago had spent already $125,000,000 for sewage purification and has an additional definitely determined future expenditure of $125,000,000. Boston and its metropolitan district, Chicago's nearest competitor, has spent $26,000,000 with no future provision, Mr. Ramey said.

While purification projects involve millions of dollars lake levels may be restored with an expenditure of only $3,500,000 for compensating works in the St. Clair and Niagara rivers, Mr. Ramey asserted.

Solution for Lake Levels.

Not only has Chicago taken the lead in purification of sewage but through

THE FOOL NOT STOLEN, FEDERAL COURT DECIDES

New York, March 18.—[AP.]—Charges that Channing Pollock, playwright, and Edgar and Arch Selwyn, producers, had plagiarized "Soldiers of the Common Good," in producing "The Fool," a 1925 hit which made a profit of more than $1,000,000, were dismissed in federal court today.

Abraham Waxman, former stage hand employed by the late Henry H. Harris, lost when the Titanic sank, claimed he gave Harris a copy of his play in 1911 and in 1912 saw Harris give the book to Pollock.

LOMBARD FIGHTS OFFICIALS' PLAN FOR CIVIC HALL

Court Injunction Halts
Purchase of Site.

Six weeks ago the village board of Lombard sold the municipal electric plant to the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois for a sum supposed to be $120,000.

Still more recently the annual budget of the village was passed. It contained two items that aroused the interest of the villagers. One was $22,000 for the purchase of a site for a splendid community hall and the other was $79,000 to erect it.

Halt Sale by Injunction.

Yesterday residents of the village, headed by Allen B. Wrisley, wealthy soap manufacturer, went before Judge William J. Fulton at Wheaton and obtained a temporary injunction preventing the purchase of the site on the ground that three members of the board and two village officers were part owners of the tract. Such a sale, it was maintained, would be illegal.

Criticism was directed at the board at the time of the light plant sale. No referendum on the proposition was taken and no official announcement of the price was ever made, according to the villagers, although the private company has taken possession and is winking the lights for Lombard.

Five Named in Court.

According to the allegations made in court, President Fred P. Maisel, Trustee Charles N. Bainbridge, Trustee Charles Reimer, Village Clerk Henry Breckman, and the board's attorney, Charles Williamson, were all interested members of a syndicate that proposed to sell the $22,000 site.

The opposition of Mr. Wrisley and his associates is based, in addition to the alleged illegality of the proposed sale, on a contention that the board is spending the light plant money too freely. They say that with the light plant revenue, hitherto a considerable figure, no longer existent, taxes will have to be raised if nearly all the funds are spent for a community hall.

TRIBUNE WANT ADS bring buyer for tuxedo— find finder of valued pin

HERE are two examples that show how Tribune Want Ads can sell and serve, quickly, cheaply and efficiently.

Mrs. H. M. Gordon, 301 W. 15th Place, sold her husband's used tuxedo for five dollars more than he was willing to accept. The sale was made the same day her ad appeared and she could have sold six more suits if she had had them!

Mr. Dale Feick, 1453 Rascher Avenue, recovered his jeweled fraternity pin through a Tribune Lost and Found Ad. The cost of the ad was insignificant compared to the intrinsic and sentimental value of the pin.

When a want ad can serve you, take advantage of the significant features of The Tribune Want Ad Section. For real speed and economy, use a Tribune Want Ad.

"One ad in The Tribune sold a tuxedo my husband had no further use for at a price five dollars higher than he was willing to accept. The suit was out of the house before he came home from the office that night. My only regret was that I didn't have more suits to sell to the other six men who called."

MRS. H. M. GORDON,
301 West 15th Place.

"When I lost a jeweled fraternity pin a few months ago I used an ad in the Lost and Found column of The Tribune for two days. Four days later my pin was returned to me. The ads cost $1.50, but the pin was worth $150.00 plus a lot of sentiment that couldn't be replaced at any price."

Chicago Woman Is Awarded Prize in Literary Contest

Lora A. Roden, 509 Briar place, is winner of the $25 prize this week for the best list of 25 literary questions and answers. The Chicago Tribune will pay $25 each week for the best questions about literary subjects. Write or typewrite on one side of the paper only, and try your questions on your friends. Send their scores with your questions. You might send two or three more than the twenty-five in case the questions have already been used without your seeing them. Any questions from the book, "Ask Me Another," will be discarded. Manuscripts will not be returned. Answers to the questions will be printed next week.

Mrs. Roden tried these questions on the head of one of the departments of the Chicago Public Library who rated 87. Here is the list:

- QUESTIONS.
1. What novelist became prime minister of England?

CONFESSIONS

Charles S. Brooks is a writer to whom a few readers are passionately devoted and whose real charm is unfortunately not known to the many who would find him not at all high brow, though never dull. He wrote one of the funniest plays I have ever read, "Wapping Wharf" it is called, and it is in a collection called "Frightful Plays." "Lately he has been writing about 'A Thread of English Road' and 'Roundabout to Canterbury,' charming books of sort of travel essays. His 'Pippa and Cheese to Come' is still talked about with joy by those who 'discovered' it ten or twelve years ago. When I asked Mr. Brooks what book he would rather have written than any other he replied:

My Dear Miss Butcher: It is a terrible thing to delay so long your letter of Dec. 9th, in which you ask me to say what book I would rather have written. Perhaps I am too greedy, and hesitate lest the list be too long. It might appear too much like a catalog—an expanded and somewhat erratic (or perhaps there are two R's in that word) five foot shelf. But my thoughts have lately turned toward the theater and I have just read Barry's "You and I." I suppose there may be many plays far greater, but just at this moment I am thoroughly envious of Philip Barry. It is a play that makes me disgusted that I did not think of it first, that I have not the ability to write it equal. Just at this moment I can think of no recent play with such true characterization do all becomes a man. Who dares do more is none?"

15. Anatole Jacques Thibault.
16. Oscar Wilde.
17. Georg Brandes.
18. Carl Van Vechten.
19. Desperate Remedies.
20. Twenty-five.
21. John Milton.
22. Dante.
23. Edmond Rostand.
24. Ben Jonson.
25. Crime and Punishment.

"The Works of Aretino." (Pascal Covert.) Samuel Putnam has translated the works of Aretino—the favorite author of Nathan Leopold, of the late Leopold Loeb partnership—and, with editing, published them in two volumes, with a critical and biographical essay. "To have included all of the works of Aretino in two volumes would have been out of the question," says Mr. Putnam. "There are five full length plays and some 3,000 letters that are to be from Aretino's pen. On the other hand, a number of the works commonly attributed to Aretino have been found by modern scholarship not to be his. These have been regarded." The volumes were published for subscribers only.

of delightful people—no play of such gracious wit and style. I have but one criticism outside my praise. I wish he had called it "The Bird in the Bush." Perhaps the title occurred to him and he rejected it. But the old saw runs through his dialogue most effectively and its use in the title seems to me inevitable. Except for laziness I would write to Barry an indignant, envious letter that his better talent has stolen from me a play I would have written if only I had known how. Perhaps if you publish this letter, you will be kind enough to mail him a clipping of it.

Sincerely yours,
Charles S. Brooks

Reed Etchings Help
Make "Silver Arrow"

Good Dunes Volume

"The Silver Arrow," by Earl H. Reed, (Reilly & Lee.) No one who takes pleasure in that rarely beautiful spot, the dunes of Indiana, has missed the very dunes etchings which Earl Reed has done. They are at the same time his most famous work and obversely responsible, perhaps, for the introduction of many to the real wonders of the dunes. The dunes are popular nowadays; they harbor on Sundays mob after mob of picnickers and bums and hot dog eaters, but there was a day when they were really desolate and altogether lovely, and before that, many, many years they were the trapping and fishing grounds of the Indians.

Mr. Reed, who has always had a great deal of love for the dunes and a great interest in their spiritual as well as physical history, has gathered together some of the most delightful of the old Indian stories which are tradition about the dunes and has put them into a book which he calls "The Silver Arrow," after one of the stories in the book. The book is attractively illustrated with reproductions of some of Mr. Reed's etchings. Before each story there is a poem which is the work of J. U. Nicholson, "The King of the Black Isles."

MONEY ROLLS IN

I am always being asked how much a certain author makes out of a certain book, and since I am not the sort who can accept a friend on the street and ask how much she paid for the new and smart hat she is wearing, I have never been able to satisfy the curiosity of my readers. But there has come an official announcement of how much Owen Davis has just been paid for the moving picture rights to his play, "Icebound," and a few assorted statistics. They are concerned with the movies, however, more than with the ordinary pursuit of a literary career, but they are interesting. He was but lately given a check for $100,000, the first of a five year guarantee of that amount for which he is to write two moving picture scenarios a year. He is also to receive a percentage of the profits of the films when they are completed, and if he feels any special passion to write more than two a year, he is to be paid lavishly for them also.

of Mr. Reed's etchings. Before each story there is a poem which is the work of J. U. Nicholson, "The King of the Black Isles."

Leave Comparisons Alone; Be Yourself, If You'd Be Charming

BY DORIS BLAKE.

In almost every group of young people one girl and boy stand out as the most popular. The other girls secretly wish they had the same power of allure and the boys wish they were endowed with the same facility for hypnotizing the girls.

Now, if there is one way to develop a great deal of personal charm for yourself, it is not comparing yourself unfavorably with the "star" performers in your group. It can always be borne in mind that the most popular girl and boy can eventually marry only one mate, so there naturally will be a number of leftovers in either sex to choose from. Not leftovers in the usual sense of the word, for these "overlooked at first" boys and girls often turn out to be the real successes of a group.

Some people are just borne to popularity. It is not fault of theirs that they can command the center of the stage at every appearance. They are probably endowed with that elusive quality which has capitalized as IT. At least, they have outstanding personalities. They are favorites of the gods in a way, and as such may be accepted with grateful generosity.

If one is not the most beautiful girl in her crowd, that fact does not deter her from making the most of the gifts that nature has bestowed upon her. By so doing, she does not expect to become the most beautiful nor is she markedly disappointed if she does not achieve the compliments due great beauty. She just goes along on her own merry little way and gets a great deal of fun out of life, ignoring the fact that other girls are more physically lovely.

The same rule may be equally well applied to the popularity quest. You may never become one of the great characters, try as you will. Nevertheless, you have the potentiality of becoming a most appealing and attractive person in your own inimitable way. You may not become the center of a gay group—but you may have a circle of awfully agreeable friends. And for the average girl this is sufficient to her needs. The same holds true of boys.

So the first rule in developing a nice degree of popularity for yourself is, as I say, not to discount your own power by comparison with others. Every body has. Some let them shrivel in insignificance with a cultivated inferiority sense. And others develop them with a self-confidence and inner-sureness that puts new acquaintances immediately at ease which, after all, is the trick that draws people to you.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

He's Jealous.

"Dear Miss Blake: My fellow is jealous and says he can't trust me. He thinks I go with some one else while he is away. I tried to explain, but he calls me a liar. Please advise. You're not fickle because you go out with other boys, Downhearted. You're just exercising your natural rights, and don't let his jealousy interfere."

No Cause for Action.

"Dear Miss Blake: I received a friendship ring from my boy friend who goes with another girl. Please advise. There's no particular significance attached to a friendship ring so you need do nothing about it, Puzzled."

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Stuffed Baked Potatoes.

Fortunately the baking potato of this day and age can be preserved well and be at our service long after the Hermudas and other sorts of new potatoes come to market, the latter costing much and not always being our delight.

In baking these large Idaho it is a good plan to choose those of equal size for a "mess" and then weigh one of them, because it has been worked out in laboratory cooking that a six ounce potato in a 425 oven will bake in forty-five minutes. If the potato weighs more than that a 400 degree oven may be better, with longer time, but there is reason in everything and a small six inch that is almost a ball may take as long in baking as a long one of smaller diameter.

The true and best test for a well baked potato is not too often met in what we have served to us, if we wander about seeking what we can write about as awful examples, perhaps, or as excellent examples, if we are fortunate. When the skin separates easily from the rest of the potato, but never in blisters—for white or sweet—it has been well baked and is soft to the pinch.

Rather small potatoes, or medium, and those of the same size are the best to bake for stuffing, and in a medium hot oven. The skin should be brushed so clean as to make it edible, and in the case of the newer potatoes it is an excellent plan to eat it. The modern fashion of splitting the baked potato is to split it lengthwise, but before the larger sort were common a little piece of the end was removed. In any case, after cutting open the potato, scrape out the pulp carefully, rice it for best effect, or mash, season to taste—simply or elaborately, but aiming at deliciousness—fill the shells, piling lightly, sprinkle with grated cheese, and put in the oven or under the broiler until this melts. Parsley or chopped pepper may be used in the seasoning, etc.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Gifts for a Child.

"I have a large size walking and talking and sleeping doll for some little girl whose parents cannot afford to buy toys, and also a red silk parasol for a little girl of 5 or 6. C. P. F."

Can you imagine having a doll which walks and talks and sleeps for your own? Wouldn't it be marvelous? And this parasol would brighten the rainiest of days, I am sure.

Wants to Learn Spanish.

"I am anxious to learn to speak Spanish with the real South American accent. I wonder if among your readers there is a South American woman who would read Spanish with me? If you are a native of Spanish soil you could send some interesting house with Mrs. M. F. which would be beneficial to you as well as to her."

1000 new felts to top the mode for street or sports

Small, medium, and large head sizes

750

Brisk, jaunty styles—for wear with the new tailleur or frock that goes a-golfing.

In all the colors and shades of Spring that harmonize so effectively.

French fur felts predominate—their soft, pliability and chic having generally established them in the favor of well dressed women.

Fourth floor.

Neckwear to brighten spring costumes—special

Vestees and sets 2.58 each

This group includes vestee sets of georgette in country club and tight fitting boyish form necklines. Mannish waist coats of wash satin, or linen pique. Organdie or crepe de chine vestees. Variety of colors.

First floor.

Lace vestee sets 1.98

Dainty vestees with cuffs to match of embroidered net, combined with real or antique filet. Real Irish and valenciennes lace, extra wide and suitable for both suits, frocks and the new bolero. All in toast tint.

Boutonnieres and corsages, $1

Violets, apple blossoms, sweet peas, gardenias, poppies, buttercups, corn flowers, orchids. Dress flowers of organdie finished with velvet leaves, also to be had in a wide choice of colors.

First floor.

These linen handkerchiefs are remarkable values

Women's hand-made handkerchiefs 50c

With 4-corner colored designs, colored hand-drawn threads, and hems—or beautiful Irish linen with wide or narrow hems. Variety of patterns, hand-embroidered.

Men's Irish linen handkerchiefs 38c

With hand-rolled hems and hand-drawn colored threads. All hand-made.

Place monogram orders now. No orders taken after April fifth for Easter delivery.

First floor.

Mandel Brothers

Spring frocks and coats—replicas of the newest modes advanced by Paris

Coats that certain smart misses will choose for spring

$35 $65 $95

How delightfully vertical and slim the trio above will appear "en promenade"! In fact, the coat decree for spring seems to be "straight and narrow" as the clever insertions and many tucks of this collection emphasize.

A coat of black kasha flaunts a dashing tie of white taffeta. $35. Petaline, new, fashions a coat trimmed with metallic braid. $65.

Sketched in center (at right) a model in Dragon's satin with a lovely collar of tan or white ermine. $95.

Fourth floor.

$35

$95

$65

This group of frocks strikes notes of chic

$45 $55

As smart a collection as ever strolled along the Rue de la Paix in the glamorous spring sunshine. Some copies of original models. All illustrate paramount points of the mode.

The yoke is only one reason for the smartness of this black with pink crepe de chine frock, sketched at extreme left. $45. Navy blue and white share honors in the Molyneux copy, at left. Georgette crepe. $55.

Three-piece ensemble, center (at left), uses crepe satin to exploit the chic of black and white. $55. Women's and misses' sizes.

Fourth floor.

Timely sale of spring furs—by the yard

Spotted calf

In black and white. 4-inch width, 7.95 yard 6-inch width, 10.95 yard

Black Italian monkey (Goat)

One of the most outstanding trimmings this season. 1-inch width, 1.65 yard

Second floor.

This young chap's topcoat is 10.75

Sizes 3 to 10

A smart, jauntily tailored coat in a variety of all-wool fabrics. Ideal for mild weather—with enough weight to keep off the chill winds.

Second floor.

Others up to $25.

Saucy little tailored coats are $15

Sizes 2 to 6

All-wool tweeds, or checked, as the one pictured on our heroine. Some have large patch pockets, and are silk lined.

Perky straw hats to match, 3.95 and $5. Straw semi-dress or tailored styles.

Third floor.

Pajamas of bright printed broadcloth or crepe 1.95

Boyish models, neatly tailored—or dainty styles with pretty collars and other effective trimming.

A choice of color combinations in these bright prints.

Especially practical and charming for the young college girl. A really good value at this reasonable price.

Third floor.

RIDING CLUB AND N. SHORES WIN IN POLO MATCHES

Qualify for the Finals in Indoor Tourney.

Chicago Riding club defeated Fort Thomas 17½ to 4 and North Shore trimmed Cincinnati 12½ goals to 9 in the two semi-final games of the indoor tournament for the Mid-West championship at the Riding club last night. As a result the Riding club and North Shore will meet in the final for the title tonight. The two losers will meet in the curtain raiser at 8:30.

The second contest last night was a hot one from start to finish and Howard Schultz at No. 3 for North Shore was thrown from his horse and severely injured when ridden over in a maul. De Gray Vanderbilt was maulled in the face with a mallet and the game had to be delayed until he was patched up.

The Riding club had a comparatively easy time of it in the first contest with the Tenth Infantry team from Fort Thomas, Ky., and there was no doubt about the outcome after the first period. Lineup:

RIDING CLUB (17½) Position. PORT (12½)
Pittsburgh, C. No. 1. Williams, 41.
Cincinnati, C. No. 2. Halden, 39.
Bertie, C. No. 3. Baldwin, 3.
Goals—Cincinnati, 10; Pittsburgh, 5.
Bertie, 1; Baldwin, 2; Williams, 1. Goals from handi-caps—Fort Thomas, 2. Points lost on fouls—Riding Club, 14; Fort Thomas, 1.
Referee—Baldwin, Yale.

Fisherman's Club of Chicago Will Banquet Saturday

BY BOB BECKER.

Chicago fishermen will have an opportunity to hear about the fishing and other recreational assets of Minnesota next Saturday night as ex-Gov. A. O. Eberhardt of Minnesota has been invited to speak on these subjects at the twentieth annual banquet of the Fisherman's club of Chicago. This club, one of the most unusual angling organizations in the country as it has a membership of 2,000 to 3,000 outdoor fans but no dues or list of officers, holds one meeting a year.

For this anniversary banquet ex-Gov. Eberhardt, Dr. John Timothy Stone, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, and Fred W. Luening of Milwaukee have been secured as speakers. Douglas Malloch, the well known Chicago poet and humorist, will be the toastmaster.

Another outstanding fishermen's meeting scheduled for next week is the annual dinner of three casting clubs in Chicago which will be held Monday night in the Stevens restaurant. This will bring together members of the Chicago, Illinois, and Lincoln Park Casting clubs, in whose membership are many nationally known casters. Charles W. Folds, president of the Isaac Walton League of America, and Dr. Preston Bradley will address the meeting.

MOON MULLINS—HELP WANTED

Six Day Bike Race Prelims Listed Tonight

Four outstanding races are on the program at the sprint meet in Dexter Park tonight, these races serving as an appetizer for the six day bicycle race which starts at 9 o'clock tomorrow night. The big race tonight will be a motor paced match between Victor Hopkins, the American champion, and George Chapman, six times holder of the title. The riders will travel close to fifty miles an hour behind the speedy motorcycles.

Francis Georgetti, Italy's premier sprinter, will meet Freddie Spencer, former American champion, in a one mile match race, the best two in three heats, while Charley Winter of New York will ride a match race against Alfredo Dinala, the Italian. A race for the championship of Chicago will bring together Carl Stockholm, Eddie Merkle, and Hy Kockler.

There also will be a five mile open for the professionals and a half mile handicap, while the amateurs will ride a half mile handicap and a one hour team race, with a sprint every two miles for points.

GAR WOOD SETS NEW SPEED BOAT MARK AT MIAMI

Miami Beach, Fla., March 18.—(U.N.)—Gar Wood, internationally famous pilot, hung up a new salt water speed boat record here today with the opening of the fourteenth annual Biscayne Bay regatta with 66.13 miles an hour. He was driving the Miss America V against the Miss America IV with his brother, Phil Wood, at the controls.

Mathers, Minor League Outfielder, a Suicide

Galesburg, Ill., March 18.—(U.N.)—Charles K. Mathers, 21, outfielder with the Waterloo team in the Mississippi Valley league, killed himself at his home in North Henderson near here today. He used a shotgun, the charge entering his heart.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

EARLIER CHICAGO. (Reprinted from the Tribune columns last Sunday I could not help noting the advertisements of hundreds of moving picture shows catering to the public and the scarcity of those looking to legitimate drama.

Twenty-seven years ago this week, the only movie ad in the Chicago dailies was the "Dixon-McGovern" fight pictures, being shown at Middleton's Clark street museum, "First Time in Chicago."

In the legitimate Chicago Orchestra, Theodore Thomas, conductor, held the boards at the Auditorium; Lillian Langtry was the star in "The Degenerates" at Powers; Mrs. Fluke, in "Becky Sharp," at the Grand; Alice Nielsen in the opera, "Singing Girl," at the Columbia; the Castle Square Opera company in "Lucia de Lammermoor," at the Studebaker; "The Sign of the Cross" at McVicker's; "Kidnaped" in New York at the Alhambra; Rose Melville, in "Sis Hopkins," at the Great Northern; Arthur Donaldson, in "Yon Yonson," in the Academy; "Quo Vadis" at Hopkins; "What Happened to Jones" at the Dearborn; "The World Against Her" at the Bijou.

The Olympic and Chicago Opera houses were the principal vaudeville houses. Helena Mora and Arthur Dunn were the headliners at the former and Mr. and Mrs. Stedman at the latter.

May Howard and company were at Misco's Trocadero; Murray and Mack at the Criterion, and the Majestic Burlesques at Sam T. Jack's. The tenth annual dog show was being held at the First Regiment armory, and "Dewey's Victory of the Battle of Manila" with the Marine band of 40 pieces, was being exhibited at Wabash and Hubbard court.

Old Times.

The late Charles E. (Parson) Davies promoted a boxing show consisting of six six-round bouts at Tattersall's. Joe Gans, not yet champion, paired with a local colored boy and had boxed one round in the curtain raiser when all the lights went out.

The crowd waited for an hour when it was told it had the choice of a refund or tickets for the following night. Those who returned saw one of the best shows ever staged in Chicago. Wm. Weitzel.

Archer Ave. 95th St. Closed for Repairs

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Ninety-fifth street and the Archer avenue road to Joliet are among the old familiar trails closed to traffic on account of early spring repair and improvement work, according to highway condition reports issued yesterday.

Archer avenue, known as Illinois route 4A, is closed from Willow Springs to Sag Bridge for long needed repairs and repaving. From Joliet this route may be used north to Sag Bridge, where gravel surfacing on 107th street may be used to Kean avenue. Then the best route is south in Kean avenue to 111th street and east to Western avenue.

The Ninety-fifth street road, Illinois route 46, is closed from Oaklawn west to Kean avenue for reconstruction, according to Chicago Motor club reports. The detour is marked from 95th south on Cicero avenue to 103rd street, east to Kedzie and north one block to 95th. From Kean avenue and 95th the detour is south on Kean avenue to 111th street and east to Western avenue.

The new bridge over the railroad tracks on Kedzie avenue just south of 34th street is open for traffic. The improvement makes Kedzie avenue a through street all the way to 6700 south.

On the north, Lincoln avenue is closed to traffic in Morton Grove. Detours are via Touhy avenue or Dempster street pavements.

To the east construction work has closed the Lincoln highway between Dyer and Shererville. The state has marked a detour southeast from the Lincoln into St. John and north to Shererville. This road is badly cut up and dangerous when wet.

200 ATHLETES TO TRY FOR HONORS IN N. DAME MEET

More than 200 athletes representing nineteen nonconference universities and colleges in the middle west will compete in the first annual indoor championship track and field games of the Central Intercollegiate meet to be held in the University of Notre Dame gymnasium this afternoon.

The field is superior to that which competed in the annual indoor meet of the western conference at Evanston last Saturday. Included in the list of nominations are athletes assured of places on next year's American Olympian team.

The institutions which will be represented are Michigan State, Marquette, Butler, Iowa State, Coe, De Pauw, Ohio Wesleyan, Miami, Knox, Kansas, Western State normal, Michigan State normal, Kalamazoo college, City College of Detroit, Lombard, Grinnell, Drake, Haskell and Notre Dame.

Reputation alone does not build greater motor cars

When minute investigation proves that the latest model of a well-known car is unquestionably the finest that manufacturer has yet built, then and only are you secure in buying on name alone.

From bumper to bumper, your inspection of the new Stearns-Knight reveals only the highest quality of materials and design that can be built into a quality car.

From every angle—at every speed—your tests of the new Stearns-Knight reveal unequalled performance—smoothness, power, flexibility and an absolutely unprecedented freedom from every form of vibration.

These are superlatives. We want the opportunity to prove to you that they are facts. May we arrange a demonstration this week? The new Stearns-Knight is now available in 17 body styles—a complete line of six and eight cylinder models. Prices range from $2250 to $4650 at Cleveland.
